Dubois Offers Spring Events for the Outdoor Enthusiast

Dubois, Wyoming -

The largest Antler Rendezvous in the world will be held May 18-23 in the Dubois Town Park. No, it's not the largest free roaming elk herd in the world that live in that neighborhood, but it's the 6th Annual Dubois Antler Rendezvous sponsored by the Dubois Lions Club and Dubois Boy Scout Troop 56.

The event, which is located about 80 miles east of Jackson Hole, WY, attracts antler dealers and wildlife enthusiasts from around the globe. During this week the public, and dealers alike, will be able to choose from hundreds of top-quality elk, deer, moose, buffalo, and caribou antlers, heads, hides, horns, antler arts & crafts, rustic furniture, and skulls. The antlers are naturally shed each year and can be found in the wintering grounds surrounding the Dubois area.

There will be many activities being held during this exciting rendezvous in the Town Park. Food and beverages will be available along with authentic entertainment. Make your plans now to bring your family and step back in time - come be part of this true western experience!

On May 22, Earth Day, the National Big Horn Sheep Interpretive Center will host its "Appreciation Day" from 9 a.m.-5 p.m. This FREE event is open to the public. Visit all the exhibits and enjoy all day viewing of the media films on various wildlife topics.
