DUBOIS WINTERFEST A Weekend of Winter Fun for the Whole Family

[December 1, 2009, Dubois, WY] – The weekend of February 6 – 7 –brings the Dubois Winterfest and the 13th Annual Dubois Sled Dog & Skijoring Races with activities scheduled for the entire family. Whether you enjoy outdoor winter activities or prefer indoor festivities, we have something entertaining for everyone this weekend.

Saturday's events start at 8:30am with the first round of sled dog races held at the Sheridan Creek Oval (approximately 17 miles west of Dubois). Events taking place in town that day include the children's "Warm Up!" Crafts at the Bighorn Sheep Center where children will make a hat and scarf, a Bread & Soup Contest, Dress Up Show for Kids and the festivities conclude in the evening with a Hootenanny at 7:00pm.

Sunday at 9:00am at the Sheridan Creek Oval the second and final round of Sled Dog & Skijoring Races begin. Snowshoe Mania is a chance for children 9+ years and adults to try snowshoeing (snowshoes provided). The culminating outdoor event of the day is the Pee Wee Fun Run (one sled and one dog) for kids ages 3 through 8, that is scheduled for approximately 1:00pm.

(somehow need to say all are FREE except the Bread and Soup contest which is $2.00)

For more detailed information about participating in the Hootenanny call 455-4073. To participate in the Bread & Soup Contest call 455-2102 evenings. For all other questions please call 455-2269 evenings or visit: www.duboiswyoming.org for a complete list of events, locations and times.
