Nostalgia Bistro and Bakery, for the bourgeois of Dubois, serving lunch, tea and dinner in a turn of the century atmosphere at the Historic Ramshorn Inn. Offering a world travel inspired menu with emphasis on Asian and European preparations, of Rocky Mountain regional ingredients including: venison, buffalo, local Wyoming honey, and huckleberries.

Enjoy lunch dishes like Silky Lobster Coconut Soup or Five Spice Roasted Duck Breast Salad with a Chile Lime Dressing. Also on the lunch menu, the Lindbergh Sandwich, boneless BBQ St. Louis Ribs on a toasted Baguette with grilled onions and Nostalgia Bistro's original BBQ sauce. Seafood lovers at dinner can try Tempura Fried Soft Shell Crab Maki Rolls or maybe Rice Flour seared Scallops with an Almond Caper Cherry Chutney. If game or beef is more your style, try the Seared Rare Venison Loin with a Wyoming Raspberry Vinaigrette or Slow Braised Beef Short Ribs with Wyoming Honey and Whole Grain Mustard.

The setting is sophisticated, warm and inviting.

In the coffee house and bakery expect a bohemian vibe while you enjoy casually elegant dining. Imagine sipping tall spiked Irish coffee while sampling cheese croissant in a lush relaxed atmosphere. In the bakery owner/chef Jacki Blakeman is using recipes that are both her own and those that have been passed down generations directly from her mother Twila Blakeman who has been tempting the palette with her baked goodies in Dubois for over 40 years. Steeped in history rich on flavor; Nostalgia Bistro.
